CUSTOM HOME Magazine Honors 18 Winners of the 2010 CUSTOM HOME Design Awards

Washington, D.C., June 16, 2010 – CUSTOM HOME magazine, the premier business magazine in the custom home building industry, published by Hanley Wood, LLC, announces the winners of its 2010 design awards program.

The CUSTOM HOME Design Awards honor the finest in custom home design and are recognized as one of the most prestigious awards competitions in the industry. The awards program helps distinguish the best designed and crafted custom work going on across the country.

The 18th annual CUSTOM HOME Design Awards received 321 entries in nine categories. Just 18 projects were singled out for honors. The jury featured four distinguished custom builders and architects, including Christine L. Albertsson, Albertsson Hansen Architecture, Minneapolis; Tom Glass, Glass Construction, Washington, D.C.; Tom Hinerfeld, Hinerfeld-Ward, Los Angeles; and Beth Reader, Reader & Swartz Architects, Winchester, Va. In all, they bestowed nine Merit awards, eight Grand awards, and one Custom Home of the Year award.

“The number of entries submitted this year for the CUSTOM HOME Design Awards is some 200 or so off our high-water mark for the construction boom, but, oddly enough, our editors and our judges believe the caliber was just as strong as in the go-go days,” said S. Claire Conroy, editorial director of CUSTOM HOME and residential architect. “Fewer projects, indeed, yet the survivors were beautifully designed and impeccably executed.”

Full coverage of the winning projects appears in the May/June issue of CUSTOM HOME and online at customhomeonline.com.
